ABOUT MEET YOUR MAKER

A split second before the biggest show of her career, an Indigenous pop star goes missing. Wrestling with every choice she's ever made; our icon traverses deep time to meet her makers in an attempt to discover the truth.

Set in the fictional universe of Queen's City this story re-imagines a world where Indigenous people were given their land back. In another time, we get to see what might happen if we had gone down a different path, if Indigenous pop culture was the norm and not the token.

THE PERFORMANCE

Produced by Blak Social, the story is told through live performance by Alethea Beetson, and filmed content performed by up to 20 Indigenous actors + musicians (and some allies). The world is told through the reclamation of pop culture:

- Entertainment Tonight becomes Doris Tonight
- ONE DIRECTION become STAUNCH DIRECTION
- The Muppets become The Cuzzies
- Blak musicians like Stella Sovereign, Lou Solid & The Ancient Rocks, and Deadly Riot rule the airwaves

THE MUSIC

Meet Your Maker is has an original soundtrack written, composed and produced by some of the deadliest Indigenous musicians on the continent:

- Moss: composer and executive producer
- Mark Munk Ross: composer and producer
- Loki Liddle (of Selve): songwriter and lead lyricist
- Sue Ray: songwriter and producer
- Reece Bowden (of Selve): composer and producer
- Alethea Beetson: performer and songwriter

The songs are woven throughout the show through film content and live performance.

BEETSON IS A POWERHOUSE PERFORMER WHO EASILY
ENGAGES THE AUDIENCE IN HER
CHARACTER'S JOURNEY.

TESTIMONIALS FROM COMMUNITY

I SAW MEET YOUR MAKER LAST YEAR AND WHAT A SHOW.
ALETHEA'S POWERFUL PERFORMANCE TAKES YOU ON A
RIDE AND YOU FEEL ALL THE FEELS. ALSO, THE AMOUNT OF WORK THAT WENT INTO THIS PRODUCTION IS EVIDENT IN THE EXHAUSTIVE AND DEADLY PERFORMANCE BY
ALETHEA, THE CAST, THE SET DESIGN, VISUALS,
AND MUSIC. HOPE TO SEE ON GADIGAL!

KALEENA SMITH (MUSICIAN, MUSIC NSW)

MEET YOUR MAKER BOLDLY REVEALED THE TRUTH OF THE MUSIC INDUSTRY AND LIFE IN GENERAL, SEAMLESSLY BLENDING POP CULTURE WITH FIRST CULTURE. ALETHEA REDEFINED WHAT IT MEANS TO TELL FIRST NATIONS STORIES ON STAGE, DELIVERING A PERFORMANCE THAT WAS BOTH UNAPOLOGETICALLY AUTHENTIC AND DEEPLY TRANSFORMATIVE. EVERYONE NEEDS TO SEE THIS SHOW.

AKALA NEWMAN (WIRADJURI / GADIGAL, MUSICIAN, FOUNDER OF GILI GATHERINGS)

MEET YOU MAKER TRULY RESONATED WITH ME AS A FIRST NATIONS ARTIST;
IT FELT LIKE A GLIMPSE INTO MY OWN MIND. ALETHEA DID A REMARKABLE
JOB OF ENCAPSULATING THE SPIRIT OF A BLAK POP ICON. IT WAS AN INNOVATIVE BLEND OF FILM AND THE DYNAMIC INTERPLAY BETWEEN THE LIVE CHARACTER AND THE ON-SCREEN CHARACTERS. IT WAS SO CLEVER.
ADDITIONALLY, THE COLLABORATION AMONG FIRST NATIONS ARTISTS ADDED
AN ENRICHING LAYER TO THE EXPERIENCE. IT HAD ME LAUGHING AND CRYING ALL AT ONCE! I HAD SUCH A BLAST WATCHING THIS SHOW, DEFINITELY SOMETHING TO RAVE ABOUT!

CANDICE LORRAE (SINGER SONGWRITER + PRODUCER)

ABOUT ALETHEA BEETSON

Dr Alethea Beetson is a Kabi Kabi/Gubbi Gubbi + Wiradjuri storyteller and dreamer. In 2013 Alethea founded Digi Youth Arts (DYA) is an Indigenous led youth arts organisation sharing the stories of our young people; and in 2019 she founded Blak Social an Indigenous arts company working across music, film and theatre. Alethea holds a Doctorate of Creative Industries specialising in the creative development of Indigenous performance. She is currently the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Program Lead at Spotify.

Her tenure at Digi Youth Arts has seen Alethea write and direct the following productions from a community engaged practice: COOKED (2022, QPAC), ANTHRO-APOLOGY (2018, Queensland Museum), Waiting and Searching (2016, Metro Arts), Don't Read The Comments (2016, Metro Arts), in-dij-uh-nus (2015, Brisbane Powerhouse; 2016 Festival of Pacific Arts in Guam; 2018, La Boite Theatre Company), Losing It (2017, La Boite Theatre Company); and direct Restless Dream (2021, Brisbane Festival), The Truth Is (2014, Twelfth Night Theatre) & Glad Tomorrow (2013, Brisbane Powerhouse).

In 2022 Alethea debuted Queen's City (writer/director) as part of Brisbane Festival and also Blak Social independently produced by Blak Social. Alethea also adapted and directed Alexis Wright's Carpentaria as an immersive literary performance for Brisbane Writers Festival in 2017 and 2019.

In 2021 Alethea adapted one of her theatre works Losing It into a short-film and directed this work in line with her existing Indigenous storytelling practices. Her move to film storytelling continues in 2023 with the impending debut of Blak Social + Selves' visual album Red Desert Dream - the product of pilot program Blak Narrative Music Videos - Volume One.

ABOUT BLAK SOCIAL

Blak Social is an Indigenous arts company dreamed into existence by Alethea Beetson (Kabi Kabi/Gubbi Gubbi and Wiradjuri). We currently work across music, performance and film.

Alethea Beetson established Blak Social after successfully founding a renowned Indigenous youth arts organisation, Digi Youth Arts, to continue creating spaces for the sovereign-led development and presentation of Indigenous stories and connected arts practice.

Blak Social's previous and current work includes:

- BLAK DAY OUT 2024 ft. Emma Donovan, 3%, BADASSMUTHA and more
- Meet Your Maker at Brisbane Festival 2024
- Queen's City at Brisbane Festival 2022
- Blak Friday (An Indiginised fright night at The Greaser 2022)
- Blak Narrative Music Videos: Volume one - A visual album written and directed by Alethea Beetson for First Nations led band Selve
- Blak Social's residency at The Tivoli Brisbane including:
 - Blak Day Out 2022 ft. Shakaya, Barkaa, The Merindas, Alice Skye and more
 - Blak Day Out 2023 ft. The Last Kinection, Birdz, Cloe Terare, DRMNGNOW, Kee'ahn, Djanaba and more
